

Kenny Baker is currently the orchestra director of McQueen High School in Reno, NV. He also currently the co-director of the Washoe County School District Junior Honor Orchestra, private violin and viola teacher, beginning orchestra and general music teacher at Verdi Elementary School, and chairperson for Nevada All State Orchestra and former chairperson for the WCSD Senior Honor Orchestra. Kenny's students have been participants in Washoe County School District Honor Orchestra, Nevada All State Orchestra and South Dakota All State Orchestra. He is a Yamaha Certified String Educator and has presented sessions at state music conferences and ASTA conferences. Kenny is a native of Rapid City, SD and holds a BME from the University of Nebraska – Lincoln where he studied with Clark Potter, Tyler Goodrich White, and David Neely. While at UNL he was an instructor with the UNL String Project under the direction of Dr. Karen Becker. Kenny is an active member in MENC, ASTA, and NMEA.